

I oppose efforts to mandate a "broadcast flag" which will render me unable to make recordings of DTV signals. As a consumer, I have the right to record television shows (upheld by the Supreme Court when the TV/movie industry was opposed to the "threat" by VCRs years ago) and watch them when I want. The TV/movie industry should not be able to hold the consumer hostage and forcefeed us shows only when they want us to see them.